

Electronic Test Technician Apprenticeship, Houghton le Spring DH4 5PH

The Company

Since 1982 this company has pioneered the technology of simultaneous identification of a multitude of tags/transponders presented en masse to the interrogation field of a Reader using scrambled radio communications.

This company provides radio frequency identification access control and electronic identification products used in applications from access control systems to prison security systems. The company designs, manufactures, tests its own brand of products.

Job Role

The role is 37.5 hours. Monday – Friday 8.30 am – 4:30 pm with a 30min unpaid break and duties will include:

- Complete all necessary college work on time and to the correct standard.
- Individuals must be able to work alone and as part of a team
- Maintain a high level of good housekeeping in all areas
- Adopt a continuous improvement attitude in developing work throughout
- Build and test RFID readers & tags to a high standard
- Quality Control of RFID
- Design - circuits and PCB's,
- Programming micro controls
- On site visits completing site surveys and problem diagnosis
- Assist throughout production areas and provide a flexible approach
- Deal with supplier returns
- Repairs – wiring & soldering
- Range testing
- Packing

Applicants must have GCSE grade C/$ or above in English and Maths.

Salary

The successful applicants will ideally be able to start in February on a salary of £3.70 per hour with increments based on successful progression.

To Apply

Interested in this or any of our other apprenticeship vacancies? Apply online at www.seta.co.uk
Please click on Engineering at the top of the online form and quote reference IDELEC in the reference box.