

Welding/Fabrication Advanced Apprenticeships in Washington, NE38 9DA

The Company

This company was founded in 1959 in the United States of America by Art Moore, as a firefighting equipment company that developed an aerial work platform specifically designed for aerial firefighting and rescue work.

These products set the standard for aerial firefighting equipment, which were proven for reliability and versatility, and created the foundations for this company's product line as we know it today. This company was one of the founding members of the global aerial work platform industry, the focus on innovation remains at the heart of the company.

Job Role

The role is 37 paid hours per week. (07.30 – 15:30 hours).

The successful applicant will carry out a range of duties involving:

- Welding to international standards.
- Comply with all health and safety instructions.
- Comply with company policies procedures and all drawings/ part lists.
- As a trainee they must be willing to gain knowledge and take instruction with regards to manufacturing processes within the company.
- Complete all necessary college work on time and to the correct standard.
- Individuals must be able to work alone and as part of a team

Applicants must have GCSE C or above in English, maths a science and IT. (Minimum 4 GCSE at level 4/C and above)

Salary

The initial hourly rate for the first year will be (based on successful performance & attendance):

Starting rate	£4.59 per hour;
On completion of 5 months apprenticeship	£5.90 per hour;
On completion of 10 months apprenticeship	£7.00 per hour;

To Apply

Interested in this or any of our other apprenticeship vacancies? Apply online at www.seta.co.uk Please click on Engineering at the top of the online form and quote reference SNOKWELD in the reference box.